Workshop WPP:

Tough Guys: are you concerned?

Using the documentary 'Tough Guise' we will explore the link between violence in the society and at home and how this links to the education of young boys and girls.

Language: English

More information for the website:

In the workshop 'Tough Guys: are you concerned?' we will explore the link between violence in the society and at home and how this links to the education of young boys and girls. The documentary 'Tough Guise' (from Jackson Katz) is the first educational video geared toward college and high school students to systematically examine the relationship between pop-cultural imagery and the social construction of masculine identities in the U.S. at the dawn of the 21st century. Within her work, WPP focuses on the topic of masculinities and how this is addressed in the peacemovement.
